FRIDAY MORNING, OCT 30 1863

The Removal of Rosecrans

We take the following from the San Francisco Bulletin received yesterday as it expresses our sentiments, and so far as we can judge, those of loyal men generally in our community During the whole war we have had implicit faith in General Rosecrans, and if the Secretary of War, who is reported by recent dispatches to be with his army has discovered any defect or failures, of course nothing is to be said The war must go on, and competent men must lead our armies but we have a right to expect and to insist that brave and competent Generals shall not be displaced on mere conjectures, or without sufficient and just cause The report also in reference to Meade's removal strikes us very unpleasantly, though we cheerfully submit to the direction which, after all must be with the head of the Administration

The only interesting and definite feature which the news received last night presents is the rumored removal of Rosecrans from the command of the Army of the Cumberland a rumor bearing so many endorsements from various authentic sources that we accept it as a fact The public all the loyal States over will hear the news with regret—even though it is stated that Grant takes command in his stead—and unless facts are known at the East that have not reached this coast the enemy will hear it with exultation None will deny to Grant, who is named as the successor of Rosecrans, genius and ability proved in battle But Rosecrans's army had acquired that confidence in him which is so necessary to a General's success, a confidence like that which the Army of the Mississippi had learned to repose in Grant To change its commander at the present moment may be a wise move, circumstances may exist, of which we know nothing, to make the change necessary, and justify it, but viewed in the limited light at present let in upon it, the change is one which we deplore, and which loyal men the country through will concur with us in lamenting It looks like another of those political movements, pregnant with disastrous consequences, which have shaken honest hearts and caused a feeling of indignation to mingle with the offering of acquiescence in the action of those in authority, which all are willing to pour out on the shrine of patriotism.

PATRIOTIC —The OREGONIAN seems to be "muchly" exorcised about the attempts the Democrats of Oregon are making to unite their party. It is opposed to party organization at this time, but we notice that it keeps working very hard for the Republican party If it don't want to see party organizations it should quit blowing for the radicals The OREGONIAN'S patriotism (?) and policy means, elect Republicans to office and damn every body else that will not help elect them

Johnny Brough, who went into the canvass in Ohio for the Governorship as a "bully" Democrat, is elected by from sixty to one hundred thousand votes, as a bully Republican

The above items are from the Walla Walla Statesman, and are both utterly false The OREGONIAN is grossly misrepresented Gov Brough is belied The OREGONIAN is just as much in favor of electing loyal Democrats as Republicans It has long ago ceased to make party its basis of action, and fights the Democracy of the present day, only because it is disloyal, and laboring to bring success to the rebellion

DANIEL S DICKINSON ON SPURIOUS "DEMOCRACY"—In a letter to a Union mass meeting at Buffalo, Attorney General Dickinson thus characterizes the Seymour "Democracy"

It may be Democratic according to Copperhead acceptation to encourage this perjured, perfideous rebellion, by every possible mode of instimulation It may, according to the same idea, be democratic to present to foreign despots the exhibition of a divided people upon a question which concerns our existence, and thus encourage them to do openly what they are doing secretly But it is not the democracy in which I was raised, and I repudiate it and all its belongings There are to day more Democrats on the Union ticket than upon the Copperhead, deducting the Know Nothings and backsliding free soilers on theirs, and as to the principles which they seek to establish as vital to Democracy, such Democratic blood, in the days of Jackson, would have vomited a leech without the aid of warm water

A SKIRMISH WITH THE INDIANS —A correspondent of the Walla Walla Statesman with Colonel Maury's command on the plains, writing from Bruneau creek, under date of October 5th, says

A few days ago a detachment of men were sent out upon a scout a short distance from camp, up this creek and came upon a small band of Indians having in their possession two American horses supposed to have been stolen A fight ensued, which resulted in the killing of four Indians and the wounding of several others The others fled over the hills their legs bearing them safely out of the way It appears that some others besides the soldiers have been meteing out justice to these Indians, as the dead bodies of seven of them were found at the mouth of this creek I hear it rumored, also, that a party of miners have had a fight with them on the Owyhee

A LITTLE ODD, BUT JUST LIKE THE CRITTERS —The platform of the Democracy is thus succinctly set forth in a communication to the "Lounger's" column of Harper's Weekly

First Resolved, That we are in favor of the war

Second Resolved, That we are opposed to all measures for carrying it on

UPPER COUNTRY ITEMS —We condense the following from the Walla Walla Statesman of the 24th inst

A man named Daly shot another named Davis on the 16th inst on the Walla Walla river ten miles from Walla Walla They were both in the employ of the Government—Davis as assistant wagon-master and Daly as teamster—and were coming in from Fort Boise with the Government train Daly had charge of the four wagon, when Davis rode back to give some directions a quarrel ensued, and what threats or demonstrations were made on the part of Davis is unknown as no one else was present The forward teamsters hearing the report of a pistol went back to the spot and found Davis lying upon the ground dying with a pistol shot through his head and another in his breast Daly was captured and secured by the men belonging to the train and brought into the garrison where he is now confined in the guard house The shooting was done in Oregon and what disposition is to be made of Daly's case has not yet transpired—whether he is to be tried by a civil or military tribunal The body of Davis was brought into the Fort and interred on Sunday at the garrison burial ground

Shaponmash, the Indian who was tried at the April term of the District Court and found guilty of the murder of Varble near Lapwai last November, has been sentenced by Judge Wyche to be hung on Friday the 20th day of November When asked by the Judge why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, he said Varble laid with his feet towards where the sun raised his head towards where it set, and his blood lay upon the ground where it ought to be" He maintained the usual stoical indifference of his race when the sentence was pronounced

A new town named Union has recently been laid off on Catharine creek at the east end of the Grand Ronde valley on the Walla Walla road to Boise A post office has been established there, and one of two trading houses, as many mechanic shops and a hotel are in operation The settlement on Catharine creek in the vicinity of town and for eight or ten miles distant, is said to be a thriving one

Fires occurred at Auburn on Wednesdays and Thursday nights October 15th and 16th destroying five buildings The fire on Thursday night is supposed to have originated from the one of the preceding evening The houses destroyed were the Court House the City Brewery saloon, two dwelling houses and a livery stable But little property of value was destroyed besides the buildings The origin of the fire is unknown

Captain Fisk, in command of the Northern Overland Escort, has reached Beaver Head The emigrants were all well Fisk's party met with no trouble on the route with the exception of the scarcity of water There were 23 wagons and 52 men in the train

A new quartz lode has been discovered half a mile above Rockfellow & Co's Union lode near Auburn The new lode is called the "Pioneer," and prospects equally as well as the Union

Gold from the Kootenai mines has been brought to Walla Walla in considerable quantities It resembles the Cariboo gold, and probably equals it in value

A report is current that a party of five men—the original discoverers of the new Snake river mines—were killed a few weeks ago by the Crow Indians

The express companies running between Walla Walla and Boise are now making the trip in two and a half days—traveling all night

Miners are leaving Boise in large parties for the new Snake river mines

Teams and pack trains are still leaving Walla Walla for Boise

GENERALS BURNSIDE AND ROSECRANS — Editors Cincinnati Commercial As some reflections are cast upon Gen Burnside for not having reinforced Gen Rosecrans, I beg leave, in vindication of the gallant Burnside to state a few facts to men who are ignorant of the geography of that country. I claim to know the country occupied by both armies I traveled through North Georgia as early as 1829 and lodged with the Cherokees, before the whites occupied the country, and before there were good roads of any kind I have been traveling over that country and East Tennessee ever since in every conceivable way, and therefore it is that I know the country

First—It is one hundred and ten miles from Knoxville to Chattanooga, and it is about forty five miles from Chattanooga to Lafayette (in the neighborhood of where the fighting began) still further South Buckner in retreating from Knoxville, burned the bridges behind him, rendering it impossible for Burnside to reinforce Rosecrans with any speed—besides, Gen Burnside had to keep an eye to the East, where, in twenty four hours, an army of twenty thousand men could be poured down upon him from Lynchburg on the great Virginia and Tennessee Railroad in full possession of the rebels

The country in North Georgia is rather a level country, with hills and ridges springing up at intervals, and separating one valley from another The streams are sluggish and the banks usually high The country is thickly timbered with a heavy undergrowth, making it rather impassable for the operations of a large army

For my part I have every confidence in our ultimate success Let Rosecrans be reinforced and he will whip the whole Confederacy The mediation I advocate is that of the cannon and the sword, and let there be no armistice, on sea or land until the rebels front and rear North and South, are subjugated or exterminated And then let condign punishment be speedily meted out to the surviving leaders of this unholy crusade against civilization My motto is Greek fire for the masses and hell fire for the leaders And none but the loyal should be consulted in the great casting up of these accounts

W G BROWNLOW

SO WE THINK —At the re opening of the New Orleans and Opelousas Railroad, on the 13th the first toast given at the collation at Brasher on board the cars, was

N P Banks, the successful General—May he be known to future generations as one of the Presidents of the United States

The toast was received with demonstrations of uproarious delight

SEA BATHING —Sea bathing costumes are regulated in France by the Government which regulates everything A writer, speaking of their effect on the wearers, says the men resemble wet statues, not much like Apollo, and the women look like magnified brown rats on their hind legs

WE ARE GLAD OF IT —The Statesman says Messrs P S Knight and Payne are about entering upon a canvass of Marion, Linn and Clackamas counties for subscriptions to the survey of the California and Oregon railroad We hope our citizens will respond liberally in this matter.

Additional Eastern News

From the Sacramento Union we have the following additional news

CAIRO Oct 22 —Little Rock advices to October 10th have been received The news was unimportant Considerable excitement was manifested among the Union troops on learning of the murder of Blunt's staff officers They swear vengeance against all who may be after [illegible] by them

Enlistments of Union men continue Three regiments have been formed at Little Rock

Considerable excitement was created at Helena on Saturday, 17th by a rebel descent on a Federal camp Three of our men were killed and three captured

A Vicksburg letter dated Oct 13th says We shall in all probability have a Provisional Government established in two or three weeks Col Markland of Kentucky is spoken of as most likely to fill the gubernatorial chair The letter adds There is an important movement on the tapis and in two weeks from now there will be no armed foe upon the soil of Mississippi

LOUISVILLE Oct 22 —A special dispatch dated Knoxville Oct 21st says The rebels attacked Col Wolford yesterday beyond Philadelphia (Tenn) and captured his battery of mounted howitzers and a portion of his wagon train Our loss was about 100 We took about the same number of prisoners and drove the enemy back beyond Philadelphia to day Whether this is a raid or a movement in force Burnside is prepared for them We still hold all our ground in the northeastern part of the State Loyal Tennesseeans are flocking to Burnside's standard faster than they can be armed

WASHINGTON Oct 22 —The Washington Chronicle gives prominence to an apparently authoritative statement relative to the removal of Rosecrans It says We are in receipt of astonishing intelligence in regard to this lately popular officer, which will startle the whole country It is that three charges have been made against him The first is preferred by Crittenden and McCook, to the effect that he left the battle field during the crisis fled to Chattanooga and reported to the officers there that the day was lost It is reported that subsequently, through opium he became insensible The second charge, it is rumored, is made by the Government to the effect that his orders were to remain at Chattanooga until reinforcements should arrive The third charge is rumored, is to the effect that he declined to move from Murfreesboro in June last when ordered to do so by the Government, as an opportunity was offered to crush Bragg—a large portion of his army having been withdrawn to aid Johnston, who was operating against Grant

WASHINGTON, Oct 22 —The latest intelligence from Warrenton Virginia, states that the rebel army is fairly across the Rappahannock It has given no fair show for a fight since it left Bull Run on Saturday (17th) Its retreat across the river ends, for the present all prospect of a general engagement Gen Meade was closeted to day with the President and Halleck, and returned to the army to night

CINCINNATI Oct 21 —A special dispatch to the Commercial dated Catlettsburg Kentucky, says An expedition sent out by Col Garrard, commanding the Eastern District of Kentucky, consisting of detachments of the Fifth and Thirtieth Kentucky regiments has returned bringing fifty prisoners, sixty horses and fifty stand of arms, without the loss of a man Eastern Kentucky is pretty well cleaned of rebels

NEW YORK Oct 22 —The Times' Morris Island letter of October 18th says During the last three or four days there has been very little firing on either side The enemy is evidently waiting for the ironclads to come up, for which event he is reserving his ammunition

It is believed that James Island is occupied by 5,000 rebels Sullivan Island is supposed to be occupied by about the same number In the immediate vicinity of Charleston there are quartered 10,000 men Beauregard's aggregate force is about 20,000

From St Domingo we learn that it is probable that Island has been abandoned by the Spaniards Port au Platte had been burned by the rebels who had established a Government at Caballeros

European Intelligence

ST JOHNS (Newfoundland) Oct 20 —The Hibernian from Glasgow Oct 18th has arrived

The seizure of the rebel rams is confirmed

The London Daily News believes that every English gentleman whose reason has not been blinded by personal prejudice will congratulate himself on the step taken by the Government in seizing the rams

The Herald considers the act significant that Earl Russell has succumbed to the pressure put upon him by the Federal Government.

Two war vessels had been on the alert to prevent any attempt at departure by the rams

In regard to the Mexican question it was stated that Napoleon had addressed an autograph letter to the Archduke Maximilian fully approving of his reply to the Mexican deputation It is said the reply of Maximilian is regarded in Austria as an acceptance of the throne of Mexico and measures were being taken to enable the Archduke to set out for Mexico in February or March next

The Paris correspondent of the London Times believes that it is true that Prince Czartoryski has demanded of the French and English Governments their recognition of the Poles as belligerents, but that France will not at present accede to the demand. What the reply of England will be is unknown

Affairs in Poland continued without change Tranquility was restored in nearly every part of the provinces of Lithuania Volhynia and Lublin

A Paris telegram says of Forey's return to France that it will not be followed by any reduction of the French army in Mexico

SUPERINTENDENT OF INDIAN AFFAIRS IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA —Early last August during my absence from Washington George M Hanson was removed from the position of Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Northern District of California and Elijah Steele of Eureka Humboldt county, was appointed This removal was made in consequence of certain charges of mismanagement in office being brought against Hanson by citizens of the localities within his jurisdiction I am sorry to say that the financial transactions of the late Superintendent do not have a good look but it is not true as has been intimated here that certain domestic irregularities of the Superintendent though notorious here had any special weight in determining his removal The facts in the case were brought to the knowledge of the President who wisely decided that though both parties in the unfortunate affair may have been far from spotless, the question could not enter into the merits of the officer of the Government Steele, as well as the new Collector of San Francisco, was appointed at the instance of Senator Conness. Cor Sac Union

GENERAL U S GRANT —General Grant left New Orleans for Vicksburg on the 10th of September accompanied by Adjutant General Thomas It will be some time before he can resume active duty An officer in the 21th Iowa infantry writing from New Orleans thus speaks of General Grant's appearance on the field during the late reviews at Carrollton It was a grand sight When Gen Grant rode on the field his presence was the signal for the heaviest outburst of enthusiasm I ever saw It was electrical The shout rolled down the long lines of infantry was taken up by the cavalry and sped on by the artillery It seemed almost like idolatry"

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 23.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 29 —Lee has sent two divisions to Bragg at Chattanooga and has withdrawn the rest of his forces to the fortifications at Fredericksburg Our cavalry had a brush with Mosby's guerrillas at Fairfax and took some prisoners

The Times' dispatch says it is now positively known that Buell's corps has been dispatched from Gordonsville by Railroad to assist the advance of Burnside towards Lynchburg Burnside has a large force of mounted infantry and is destroying the main rebel railroad communication with the south west apprehensions are felt for its safety

CAIRO Oct 24 —We have dates from Memphis to the 21st Gen Sherman's advance was attacked by Gen Forrest's cavalry at B[illegible] Station on the 20th and got whipped Wheeler's cavalry is reported near Decatur Tenn 1000 strong

Louisville dates of the 24th says that [illegible] guerrillas had plundered Bardstown, [illegible] and Columbia taking everything they could carry In Greensburg they robbed the bank

DRAWINGS OF THE MOON —Prof Phillips has succeeded in obtaining drawings of the moon seen through a new telescope with a six inch object glass They exhibit many new and striking features showing a volcanic action of which we of this world have no conception What would we think if our whole continent was a collection of craters with hills rising out of their midst and divided by radiating ravines of awful depth? The only approach to any such scenery in our world is to be found in the Cordilleras of our gold regions

BANNOCK GOLD AND SILVER MINING CO.—Articles of incorporation of the Bannock Gold and Silver Mining Company were filed Oct. ..., 1863, by Ed. A. Temple, D. F. Bradford, R. R. Thompson, Lloyd Brooke and J. Ainsworth, incorporators. Their principal office will be in Portland. We understand the Company have already secured claims in some of the best quartz lodes in the Boise country, and intend to work them at an early day.

PASSAIC COMING.—We notice that the Passaic, having been thoroughly repaired and almost reconstructed, was advertised to leave for Portland, on Tuesday last, under the command of Captain A. M. Burns. If she makes as good time as has been claimed for her, she ought to be here this evening, or early tomorrow.

OREGON FRUIT.—The Bulletin says that the apples from Oregon by the Brother Jonathan have been disposed of; about 500 boxes choice sold at $1,25 @ 1,50 ℔ box—the remaining lot were closed out at 75c @ 1,00 per box.

SCHOONER.—Capt. Richardson, of the bark Almatia, informs us that while lying at Astoria he saw a square-rigged vessel outside, with signal flying for a pilot. He could not make her out.

THEATRICAL BENEFIT.—To-night is the benefit of Mr. J. E. Myers, a pleasing actor in his line of characters. Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne will appear as Rachel in "The Jewess," and as Margery in the "Rough Diamond," with Mr. Myers as Joe. "See him."

THE CHANGED POLICY OF ENGLAND ON ... MATTERS.—That the steam rams will not be allowed to leave the Mersey and the Clyde is more than a report. The Philadelphia Press publishes a letter from a high source, which confidently confirms it, and also throws light on the changing and, indeed, changed policy of England towards this country. It is as follows:

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 12, 1863.

Whatever newspaper reports or even despatches from the Legation may say, you need have no doubt about the Confederate rams being stopped, as I have assurances from one of the highest officials of the British Government. THEY BEATS OREGON.—An unsophisticated young lady that ran through the curriculum of a superficial seminary education in the States, and who thereat acquired a smattering of one little thing and another, particularly a penchant for making use of French and foreign phrases whenever and wherever the same could be consistently prefixed, suffixed or dovetailed into her sentences, showed her egregious ignorance of the elegant idioms and expressions indigenous to Denver and Colorado during the other evening at a party, in a significant manner indeed. Being asked by a gentleman close by if she would honor him by taking his arm for a promenade, she instantly replied, in strains stern, thick and classic—"Take your muck-a-muck!" She said it in good faith, pre supposing it was a fashionable, smart-sounding style of speaking out West, not having heard it often before.—Rocky Mountain News.

GERMAN VERBOSITY.—The London Athenæum, in reviewing a recent work of a German author, has the following remarks on the peculiarities of the German language and literature:

"We often have to express our admiration of what is German. We may take this occasion to say a word upon the great German fault—verbosity. No nation in the world contains so many adepts in the art of carrying the thing too far. Their very language is an instance. A friend of ours maintains that it has seven deadly sins, as follows: 1. Too many volumes in the language; 2. Too many sentences in a volume; 3. Too many words in a sentence; 4. Too many syllables in a word; 5. Too many letters in a syllable; 6. Too many strokes in a letter; 7. Too much black in a stroke.

Pleurisy Cured.

MADISON, IND., May 5, 1863.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co—Gents: This is to certify that I have had a severe attack of Pleurisy. The pain was so severe, that it would, at times, ALMOST TOOK MY LIFE. My physician did but little for me; that is, what he did, gave me no relief. I commenced using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, also applying the hot poultice to the part affected, as directed, which produced a perspiration, and the pain began to get better; and by the use of two or three doses of the Pills, I found myself almost entirely relieved of the attack. I am constitutionally predisposed to this disease. I have always kept them on hand, and I find them the very best Pills in the world for that disease, also as a family medicine.

Yours, truly, SAMUEL PARKER.

Rheumatism Cured—WILLIAMSTON, Vt, May 15, 1862.—MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—Dear Sirs: It is with great pleasure that I reply to your inquiry as to what effect your Panacea has had upon my long-standing complaint—Rheumatism. In March, 1861, I was confined to the house, and finally was obliged to keep my bed, suffering intensely from pain in the back and head, when, through the influence of a neighbor, I got a bottle of DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, which I used externally and internally, according to directions. Within twenty-four hours I was able to commence work, and in two days was completely cured; I have had several attacks of Rheumatism since, but a single trial of the PANACEA has always brought immediate relief.

Respectfully yours, JOHN B. STAPLES.

I know the above to be a correct statement of facts.

Professional Etiquette.—A writer in the Cornhill Magazine says:

Some years ago a gentleman, who lived in a somewhat lonely part of the country, was asked to go and see a poor neighbor who was ill. On his arrival he found the man at the point of death, and extremely anxious to see a clergyman. The visitor went to the house of a clergyman who lived near, and told him of the dying man's wish. The clergyman replied that as the house of the dying man was out of his parish he could not interfere, nor would any remonstrance induce him to do so.

An eminent lawyer was so fortunate as to be made the heir of a rich and childless old man, who, falling ill, showed him his will by which it appeared that the testator had given a life interest only to his intended heir. When this was pointed out to the sick man he said, "Yes, but I understood you to say you meant never to marry?" "I may have said so," was the answer, "but I seriously did not mean it, and at any rate, I should not wish to act upon that assumption." "Then," said the sick man, "draw up the will so as to give yourself the absolute property and I will execute it." The lawyer replied that he could not make a will in his own favor, and before another lawyer could be found the testator had died, and the mistake had become irreparable.

A gentleman was poisoned but escaped with his life; the poison remained in his body and caused him grievous suffering. He employed certain unrecognized remedies, and by means of them, as he considered, recovered his health and got the poison out of his system. He went to an eminent physician and described his case. The physician said: "I will treat you on the supposition that you really have got rid of the poison, but don't tell of me, for the remedy, which as you say has got it out, is not recognized by the profession."

A Sharp Reply to the Southern Clergymen.—Rev. Dr. McClintock writes from London to the N. Y. Methodist:

I had occasion, some time ago, to call your attention to a vulgarly abusive attack on America by Dean Alford, in Good Works. It is my pleasanter duty now to notice an article of very different tone and purpose in the September number of the same magazine.—Ludlow, who is one of the few Englishmen who are well informed on American affairs, contributes an article entitled "The Southern Minister and his Slave Convert," which is intended as a satirical reply to the "appeal" in favor of slavery issued from Richmond some time ago, and signed by a large number of Southern clergymen. In a sharp dialogue between the slave convert and his minister, Ludlow illustrates the assertion made in the said appeal, that "the South has done more than any people on earth for the Christianization of the African race." The convert, troubled in mind about "many tings," comes to his minister for relief. He has had three wives besides his present Sally; and he cannot reconcile this state of things with a passage read by his minister on Sunday "dout do sin ob whosoeber put 'way his wife, 'cep she go wrong." The minister reproves him for asking improper questions, and bids him think what his case would have been if he had remained "a benighted savage in Africa." His trouble about "searching the Scripture" is got over in the same way. I hope you will reprint the whole article. It is a tract for the times.

A Visit to John Minor Botts.—It was my pleasure to take dinner yesterday with John Minor Botts at his residence near here. His persecution by the leaders of the Southern Confederacy, culminating in his eight weeks imprisonment in the old Libby prison, has not diminished his rotundity of figure, the brightness of his keen gray eyes, the brilliancy of his wit, and, lastly, and not least, his firm and uncompromising fidelity to the Union. His plantation, which he purchased in February last, comprises something over two thousand acres. His dwelling, in size, is in keeping with the place, with an immense portico, with high and massive pillars, a wide spreading and well shaded lawn, and view of the surrounding country extended and picturesque. His family, consisting of three grown up and accomplished daughters and a son, live with him. Rebel cavalry have been encamped on his ground most of the time for months past. It is well known that he is now enjoying his freedom through favor of a parole granted by the rebel authorities. This, of course, places him under restraint in telling many things he might otherwise tell, but nothing, he says, will prevent in the future his telling his hostility to the Confederate Government and adherence to the policy and principles of those seeking to preserve the Union. He persistently says he will not violate his parole; but he wishes our Generals knew half he knows of the rebels and their resources and intentions. Ten days ago he was in Richmond, having gone on a sort of family marketing expedition. He made a few purchases, and for what before the war would have cost him $64 15 he paid the small sum of $1,368 02. He paid fifty dollars for a pair of common sewed shoes, and had he ventured into ordering a plain suit of clothes, which he thought of doing, would have had to pay five hundred dollars for it. A good many of our officers had called on Botts to pay him their respects, and show their appreciation of his fearlessness in avowing his belief and principles.—Vir. Cor. of N. Y. Tribune, Sept. 18th.

Letter from Peter Cooper to Governor Seymour.—Peter Cooper, as an old line Democrat, has written a long letter to Governor Seymour on National affairs, in which he discusses the means that should be adopted for the suppression of the rebellion. He deprecates the State rights principle, but urges a more vigorous co-operation of the loyal States with the Government as necessary for the successful prosecution of the war, which now requires all our united energy. He adduces some facts to show that the Emancipation and Confiscation Acts have already proved most damaging to the rebels; and, assuming that slavery is the cause of the insurrection, concludes that it is our duty to extirpate it. He concludes by stating that in addressing Gov. Seymour on this subject, he is animated by a most earnest desire to do what he can to restore peace to his country; and adds that it would be the proudest day of his life if he could induce him to call on all, without distinction of party, to unite to conquer the rebellion.—N. Y. Sun, Sept 26th.

The Only Son of his Grandmother.—In Providence, on Tuesday, one conscript sought exemption on a certificate, duly sworn to, that he was the only son of his grandmother, who is dependent upon him for support. The only son of his grandmother was constrained to put on the uniform of Uncle Sam, and will hereafter pass as only the son of a gun.—Boston Herald.

Severe, but Just.—A young lady recently entered a railroad carriage in Paris, where there were three or four gentlemen, one of whom was lighting a cigar. Observing her, with the characteristic "politeness" of a Frenchman, he asked her if smoking would incommode her. She replied, "I do not know, sir; no gentleman has ever smoked in my presence."

The Troy Daily Press says in its prospectus, "The Press, though Democratic in politics, will endeavor never to be objectionably so." This reminds us of Marryatt's story of the girl who experienced maternity outside of matrimony, and who, upon being reproached for the offense, alleged in deprecation that the baby was a "very small one."

Mrs. Partington on Watering-places.—Are you going to any watering place this summer?" asked a young friend of Mrs. Partington on a rainy day lately.

She had just put up the window to keep out the damp and disagreeable air, and pulled her handkerchief more up over her shoulders to keep off the chill. "Watering-places," said she, with a gentle tap on the cover of her box, at the same time looking at Ike, who was engaged in making a kite out of the last Puritan Recorder, that the dame had just laid by for her Sunday reading, "watering-places I don't think much of now-a-days. There ain't no need of 'em since the luckymotives have run off the stages; but once as the old pumps stood by the way-sides under the ambiguous trees, with a hollow log for the cattle to drink out of, it seemed like a horses in the desert, as some of 'em used to say."

"My dear madam," said her young friend, "I mean the fashionable watering-places where people go to spend the summer."

"Oh!" she replied, "that's it, is it? Well, we needn't go away from home to find a watering-place to-day; and them that do, depend upon it"—here she laid her mouth close to his ear and spoke in a whisper,—"they go for something else besides water."

She gave him a queer look as she said this, and pointed significantly to the little buffet in the corner, where an old-fashioned cut-glass decanter stood surrounded by a dozen little glasses, as if they were young decanters just hatched out, but what she meant we dare not attempt to explain.

Cream vs. Cod-liver Oil.—A new cure for consumption is talked of—a cream diet. Eat as much pure, sweet cream as the stomach will digest (and as you can get,) and the effect, it is said, be quite as apparent as from the use of the best cod-liver oil.

AYER'S

CHERRY

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD, MASS., 20th Dec., 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER: I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT, M.D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, MISS., Feb. 7, 1856.

BROTHER AYER: I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children. We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill, and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M.D.

AMOS LEE, Esq., MONTEREY, IA., writes, 3d Jan., 1856: "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks; took many medicines without relief; finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman. The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs; less than one half the bottle made me completely well. Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies, as the poor man's friend."

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb. 4, 1856.

SIR: Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section. It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption, and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant.

A. A. RAMSEY, M. D., ALBION, MONROE Co., IOWA, writes, Sept. 6, 1855: "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable."

We might add volumes of evidence, but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach; but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856.

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL: I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife. She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption, from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine. We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be, but is free from her cough, and calls herself well.

Yours, with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY, of Shelbyville.

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world, and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these Pills have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

The GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

Thorn's Compound Extract of

OPAIBA AND SARSAPARILLA.

POSSESSES advantages over all other medicines hitherto employed for the cure of Private Diseases; it is offered with an enlightened appreciation of its merits, which are highly prized by a desideratum long sought for by the medical world. It needs no confinement or change of diet. It is in the form of a paste, it is entirely tasteless, and causes no unpleasant sensation to the patient.

It has acquired the notoriety which is almost unparalleled in Europe. It has been extensively employed and approved of by the faculty of England, and is now prescribed by the most eminent of the profession.

As the above valuable preparation has been extensively counterfeited by unprincipled parties in the United States, therefore to SECURE THE GENUINE observe this LABEL, with the signature on and covering the bottom of each Pot:

J. B. Thorn, Chemist, London; John L. Tarrant, New York, Sole Agent for the United States.

The Stamp on each pot will also bear the name of the proprietor, and the United States Agent.

DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS will observe a United States stamp on package the following words.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The increased reputation and great demand for Thorn's Compound Extract of Copaiba and Sarsaparilla have held out inducements to others to offer imitations of this valuable medicine. Venders are particularly warned of these impositions that they may be on their guard, and not be imposed upon by an impure article, calculated to injure their customers, and to destroy the merits of the original preparation. The sole proprietor, which, the subscriber, (successor to James Tarrant,) by whom it was first introduced into the United States, has attached his signature to this caution, to attest its genuineness, and anything else is forgery.
